Write on My Heart Every Word...

If you’re new to writing scripture, get ready for your life to change! And isn’t that what our life should be about? Tenderizing our hearts and shaping our lives and attitudes in order to look more like the Lord? If you spend just a little time on this effort each day, you will be changed for the better. We know that the power isn’t in us, but the word IN US is powerful. When it is treasured in our hearts, we are equipped with the power of God. It gives us strength to endure trials, and it increases our faith to help us walk through each day, reminding us of what will come after this life. It tells us how much God loves each of us, how He knows our hearts and thoughts, and how He bends down to listen to our joys, heartaches, praises, and thanksgivings. When the word is in our hearts, we have its wisdom to help us make hard decisions, and we are more able to remember how we should act—and react—toward difficult people and situations. Why would we NOT want to be in the word of God? Please don’t dismiss writing scripture as “too simple” or “not a deep Bible study”. Writing scripture, when you put your heart into it, is deep and rich.

Here are a few suggestions for writing scripture-not necessarily in order of importance:

1. Just do it - write every day. Yes, even on holidays and trips. Just write, even if you can’t study it thoroughly. Just like eating, it’s nourishing!

What does today's writing teach me about God?

2. ALWAYS keep the surrounding context in mind.
3. Don't be a perfectionist. I can't overemphasize this. While some are able to do this, don't force yourself into a complicated color scheme with your pens, or be upset if you have to cross something out. If you miss a day (or ten) please don't give up entirely. Read over the days that you missed, and then just pick back up writing. Remember - our purpose is to learn, not for our pages to be attractive or to impress anyone. It's great if your page is attractive! But realize that that's not the top priority. This study is for you. It's for your benefit, not someone else's. Please pray about this. It's so easy to let feelings of inferiority creep in. Prepare your heart, like Ezra did, to seek the Law of the Lord and to do it (Ezra 7:10). Can you tell that this is important to me? It's because I struggle with it.
4. Look for repeated words and key phrases throughout the chapters and books. When something is repeated, it's important!
5. Try to identify people when they are mentioned. The book Who's Who in the Bible (by Philip Comfort and Walter A. Elwell) is helpful!
6. Each time a location is mentioned, if possible, track it on a map! This will help you "see" the story more fully. There are maps included - I hope you'll use them!
7. Use www.biblehub.com! And blueletterbible.org!
8. You don't have to write using the World English Bible - use your desired version. The text in this book is just a guide. Remember that the Bible wasn't originally written in the English language. There are issues with any version, but you can (and should) use online tools to discover the meaning of Hebrew (and Greek) words in their original language. This is important!
9. Use the study method that works best for you. I personally use colors to connect thoughts, but there may be a different way that makes more sense to you. Do what makes sense to you! Again, this study is for your own personal growth.
10. Please, please don't compare your study with anyone else's work. It's great to share and learn from each other, but the last thing we want is for anyone to stop studying because they feel like their study isn't as interesting or thorough as someone else's.
11. Read each series of verses out loud before you write it. It feels funny at first, but it's helpful!
12. Any extra outlines, notes or maps I've included are just helpful for information and study - they're from man, not from God. Please don't assume I'm "endorsing" anything. We are all responsible for doing our own study.
13. Don't plagiarize...even if it's just in your own study, remember to give credit when you're quoting someone. It's just the right thing to do, and plus - you may later want to go back and investigate more.
14. There is no doubt you'll find mistakes I've made in the layout/design. Sorry! Just keep going.
15. Please join our 5000+ member Facebook group, Write On My Heart Every Word!
16. Remember Who wants you to be IN the word, and who wants you to stay OUT of it. James 4:7-8

What's new in 2024?

Since the book of Genesis is a narrative, the word study from last year has changed a bit. On each day I have placed a word, phrase or sentence in a larger, bold font to set it apart. If you'd like, spend a little extra time investigating them. It may be a person or a place. It may be a word that needs defining - look at the meaning of the Bible word using a Bible dictionary (not an English dictionary - since these words were not originally written in English.) It may be a sentence with intriguing thoughts or connections to New Testament passages. Some of the bolded phrases or sentences could be seeds for deeper thinking. Investigate other versions to see if the words are translated differently. Depending on the word's usage, investigate how it was used and see where else it may have been used in scripture. Is there perhaps a difference in our English usage of the word and the

What does today's writing teach me about God?

Bible usage? If so, how does that affect the meaning of the passage? In the genealogies, I found it more difficult to select a word/phrase for deeper study! However, there are always questions you can ask yourself while you're in the word. It is FUN to dig in and investigate! Be honest with the text - let it teach you. Go to the text to with intent to discover details that you may have never seen before.

I've also put a reminder at the top of each page to ask ourselves every day "What does today's writing teach me about God?" God gave us the word in order for us to know Him, so the purpose of Bible study is to grow in our knowledge of and faith in Him. It changes how we study scripture when we keep this question in mind.

Also, instead of taking up room with last year's "sticky note", I added a small note in the footer of each page that will help those who enjoy using this as sort of a prayer journal, with a small space to jot down what might be on our hearts and in our prayers.

Why Genesis? I spent a lot of time considering what to write this upcoming year. I was afraid some would lose interest in writing just one book. However, there is such value in diving into the very beginning of creation, seeing that God existed before the very beginning of time, and He had our future in mind from the very beginning. Writing through the account of His truly awesome power shown when He spoke the world into being will increase our faith in Him. Writing His intimate involvement in our creation will help us to see how He truly feels about us - we are His children. Looking more deeply into the names of God will be valuable. Mapping out locations will help to make the Bible story (in this case, "story" means "a true narrative designed to instruct the hearer") grounded in reality. Yes, there are lengthy genealogies throughout Genesis, but even those can be interesting to dig into. Where else might these people be mentioned? These genealogies are part of our heritage, and every word of scripture was included intentionally by God, so there is a reason for us to study them. As I was inserting the text into this book, each day reminded me of the many (real) Bible characters we have heard about through the years, but writing through their accounts will help us to know them on a different level. We'll write and learn about Adam and Eve, Cain and Abel, Noah and his family, Abram and Sarai, Hagar, Isaac and Ishmael, Rebekah, Jacob and Esau, Rachel and Leah, the sons of Jacob... Joseph and his life in Egypt. We'll experience the Flood, see the scattering of the people after the Tower of Babel. We'll write through Abram's journeys and learn more about God's promises to him. We'll see the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah. The book of Genesis covers a vast amount of time and is a narrative like no other. The more I think about it, the more excited I become!

Happy writing!

-Carla

What does today's writing teach me about God?

Genesis 1:1–4

<sup>1</sup> In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. <sup>2</sup> The earth was formless and empty. Darkness was on the surface of the deep and God's Spirit was hovering over the surface of the waters. <sup>3</sup> God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. <sup>4</sup> God saw the light, and saw that it was good. God divided the light from the darkness.

What does today's writing teach me about God?

Genesis 1:5–8

<sup>5</sup> God called the light “day”, and the darkness he called “night”. There was evening and there was morning, the first day. <sup>6</sup> God said, “Let there be an expanse in the middle of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.” <sup>7</sup> God made the expanse, and divided the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse; and it was so. <sup>8</sup> God called the expanse “sky”. There was evening and there was morning, a second day.

What does today's writing teach me about God?

Genesis 1:9–12

<sup>9</sup> God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered together to one place, and let the dry land appear;" and it was so. <sup>10</sup> God called the dry land "earth", and the gathering together of the waters he called "seas". God saw that it was good. <sup>11</sup> God said, "Let the earth yield grass, herbs yielding seeds, and fruit trees bearing fruit after their kind, with their seeds in it, on the earth;" and it was so. <sup>12</sup> The earth yielded grass, herbs yielding seed after their kind, and trees bearing fruit, with their seeds in it, after their kind; and God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:17–20

<sup>17</sup> God set them in the expanse of the sky to give light to the earth, <sup>18</sup> and to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness. God saw that it was good. <sup>19</sup> There was evening and there was morning, a fourth day. <sup>20</sup> God said, “Let the waters abound with living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth in the open expanse of the sky.”

Genesis 2:16–19

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh God commanded the man, saying, “You may freely eat of every tree of the garden; <sup>17</sup> but you shall not eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil; for in the day that you eat of it, you will surely die.” <sup>18</sup> Yahweh God said, “It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make him a helper comparable to him.” <sup>19</sup> Out of the ground Yahweh God formed every animal of the field, and every bird of the sky, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them. Whatever the man called every living creature became its name.

Genesis 2:20–23

<sup>20</sup> The man gave names to all livestock, and to the birds of the sky, and to every animal of the field; but for man there was not found a helper comparable to him. <sup>21</sup> Yahweh God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep. As the man slept, he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh in its place. <sup>22</sup> Yahweh God made a woman from the rib which he had taken from the man, and brought her to the man. <sup>23</sup> The man said, "This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. Genesis 28:10–13

<sup>10</sup> Jacob went out from Beersheba, and went toward Haran. <sup>11</sup> He came to a certain place, and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. He took one of the stones of the place, and put it under his head, and lay down in that place to sleep. <sup>12</sup> He dreamed and saw a stairway set upon the earth, and its top reached to heaven. Behold, the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. <sup>13</sup> Behold, Yahweh stood above it, and said, "I am Yahweh, the God of Abraham your father, and the God of Isaac. I will give the land you lie on to you and to your offspring.

Genesis 28:14–17

<sup>14</sup> Your offspring will be as the dust of the earth, and you will spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south. In you and in your offspring, all the families of the earth will be blessed. <sup>15</sup> Behold, I am with you, and will keep you, wherever you go, and will bring you again into this land. For I will not leave you until I have done that which I have spoken of to you.” <sup>16</sup> Jacob awakened out of his sleep, and he said, “Surely Yahweh is in this place, and I didn't know it.” <sup>17</sup> He was afraid, and said, “How awesome this place is! This is none other than God's house, and this is the gate of heaven.”

Genesis 33:1-4

<sup>1</sup> Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, Esau was coming, and with him four hundred men. He divided the children between Leah, Rachel, and the two servants. <sup>2</sup> He put the servants and their children in front, Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph at the rear. <sup>3</sup> He himself passed over in front of them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother. <sup>4</sup> Esau ran to meet him, embraced him, fell on his neck, kissed him, and they wept.

What does today's writing teach me about God?

Genesis 33:5-8

<sup>5</sup> He lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, "Who are these with you?" He said, "The children whom God has graciously given your servant." <sup>6</sup> Then the servants came near with their children, and they bowed themselves. <sup>7</sup> Leah also and her children came near, and bowed themselves. After them, Joseph came near with Rachel, and they bowed themselves. <sup>8</sup> Esau said, "What do you mean by all this company which I met?" Jacob said, "To find favor in the sight of my lord."

Genesis 44:3-7

<sup>3</sup> As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys. <sup>4</sup> When they had gone out of the city, and were not yet far off, Joseph said to his steward, "Up, follow after the men. When you overtake them, ask them, 'Why have you rewarded evil for good?' <sup>5</sup> Isn't this that from which my lord drinks, and by which he indeed divines? You have done evil in so doing.' " <sup>6</sup> He overtook them, and he spoke these words to them. <sup>7</sup> They said to him, "Why does my lord speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants that they should do such a thing!

Genesis 49:24–27

<sup>24</sup> But his bow remained strong. The arms of his hands were made strong, by the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, (from there is the shepherd, the stone of Israel), <sup>25</sup> even by the God of your father, who will help you, by the Almighty, who will bless you, with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lies below, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb. <sup>26</sup> The blessings of your father have prevailed above the blessings of my ancestors, above the boundaries of the ancient hills. They will be on the head of Joseph, on the crown of the head of him who is separated from his brothers. <sup>27</sup> “Benjamin is a ravenous wolf. In the morning he will devour the prey. At evening he will divide the plunder.”

Genesis 49:28–33

<sup>28</sup> All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father spoke to them, and blessed them. He blessed everyone according to his own blessing. <sup>29</sup> He instructed them, and said to them, “I am to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, <sup>30</sup> in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite as a burial place. <sup>31</sup> There they buried Abraham and Sarah, his wife. There they buried Isaac and Rebekah, his wife, and there I buried Leah: <sup>32</sup> the field and the cave that is therein, which was purchased from the children of Heth.” <sup>33</sup> When Jacob finished charging his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, breathed his last breath, and was gathered to his people.

Genesis 50:1-5

<sup>1</sup> Joseph fell on his father's face, wept on him, and kissed him. <sup>2</sup> Joseph commanded his servants, the physicians, to embalm his father; and the physicians embalmed Israel. <sup>3</sup> Forty days were used for him, for that is how many days it takes to embalm. The Egyptians wept for Israel for seventy days. <sup>4</sup> When the days of weeping for him were past, Joseph spoke to Pharaoh's staff, saying, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, please speak in the ears of Pharaoh, saying, <sup>5</sup> 'My father made me swear, saying, "Behold, I am dying. Bury me in my grave which I have dug for myself in the land of Canaan." Now therefore, please let me go up and bury my father, and I will come again.' "

Genesis 50:6–11

<sup>6</sup> Pharaoh said, “Go up, and bury your father, just like he made you swear.” <sup>7</sup> Joseph went up to bury his father; and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, all the elders of the land of Egypt, <sup>8</sup> all the house of Joseph, his brothers, and his father’s house. Only their little ones, their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen. <sup>9</sup> Both chariots and horsemen went up with him. It was a very great company. <sup>10</sup> They came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, and there they lamented with a very great and severe lamentation. He mourned for his father seven days. <sup>11</sup> When the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, “This is a grievous mourning by the Egyptians.” Therefore its name was called Abel Mizraim, which is beyond the Jordan.

Genesis 50:12–16

<sup>12</sup> His sons did to him just as he commanded them, <sup>13</sup> for his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field, as a possession for a burial site, from Ephron the Hittite, near Mamre. <sup>14</sup> Joseph returned into Egypt—he, and his brothers, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father. <sup>15</sup> When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "It may be that Joseph will hate us, and will fully pay us back for all the evil which we did to him." <sup>16</sup> They sent a message to Joseph, saying, "Your father commanded before he died, saying,

Genesis 50:17-21

<sup>17</sup> 'You shall tell Joseph, "Now please forgive the disobedience of your brothers, and their sin, because they did evil to you." ' Now, please forgive the disobedience of the servants of the God of your father." Joseph wept when they spoke to him. <sup>18</sup> His brothers also went and fell down before his face; and they said, "Behold, we are your servants." <sup>19</sup> Joseph said to them, "Don't be afraid, for am I in the place of God? <sup>20</sup> As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to save many people alive, as is happening today. <sup>21</sup> Now therefore don't be afraid. I will provide for you and your little ones." He comforted them, and spoke kindly to them.

Genesis 50:22-26

<sup>22</sup> Joseph lived in Egypt, he, and his father's house. Joseph lived one hundred ten years. <sup>23</sup> Joseph saw Ephraim's children to the third generation. The children also of Machir, the son of Manasseh, were born on Joseph's knees. <sup>24</sup> Joseph said to his brothers, "I am dying, but God will surely visit you, and bring you up out of this land to the land which he swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob." <sup>25</sup> Joseph took an oath from the children of Israel, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here." <sup>26</sup> So Joseph died, being one hundred ten years old, and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.
